Gold Coast Cricket Umpires and Scorers' History

An Umpiring Association was first formed on the Gold Coast in October 1980 in the garage of then-Secretary Ray Fowler and had at least 8 regular members throughout the 1980/81 Season. The Association was donated $100 from the then Gold Coast and District Cricket Association with match fees agreed to be $15 per afternoon and $20 for a full day. The inaugural Committee was formed by Fowler, President Maurice Glassman and Ray Bignell. The then Gold Coast Umpires Association (GCUA) was first registered in 1989.

The GCUA was Incorporated on 1 July 2019 and was renamed to the Gold Coast Cricket Umpires and Scorer's Association Inc (GCCUSA). On 27th April 2021, former ICC Elite Panel Umpire and Queensland Bulls All Rounder Bruce Oxenford was named Patron of the GCCUSA. The GCCUSA has been affiliated with Queensland Cricket Umpires' & Scorers Association (QCUSA) since its registration and has held dual affiliation since 2021/22 when it formalised its affiliation with New South Wales Umpires & Scorers Association.

Since 1980 the GCCUSA has been led by Presidents Maurice Glassman, Wally Foster, Bernie Brennan, Alan Edwards, Laurie Bradley, Paul Baker, Les Garraway, Dave Johnson and Bob Myatt.

President's Message

Season 2023/2024 has been another successful season for GCCUSA due to the support of many people, among those being our Patron, Bruce Oxenford; Our Executive and Management Committees; Our members; and Cricket Gold Coast (CGC). I thank Vice President, Peter Larter for his support.

Particular mention needs to be made of our youthful office bearers, Secretary Michael Guy and our Treasurer Sam Goswami, who continue to provide the outstanding administration they carry out for the Association. Thanks are also due to our Selections/Appointments team of Michael Guy, Leigh Buckingham and Justin Cooke who constantly work under pressure.

Congratulations to Stephen Fildes, on reaching 1000 games whilst umpiring on the Gold Coast, Queensland Country, Brisbane and the United Kingdom. Great effort Stephen.

I would also like to acknowledge our Life Members, Wally Foster, Morrie Glassman, Ray Fowler, Tony Pettigrew, John Thompson, Les Garraway, Paul Baker and Marty Orr, whose efforts over many years provided a solid foundation for us to build upon.

Queensland Cricket Association through State Umpire Coordinator, Matthew Skinner provided much support, particularly the provision of the QCUSA Training Team who attended our annual Regional Training day.

Our relationship with Cricket Gold Coast, continues on a solid foundation. We are always welcomed to CGC Delegates meetings and our contributions are valued by the members.

It is pleasing to note that many of our members hold 'Representative Level' accreditation and that Sam Goswami for the past five seasons has represented us on the Qld Country Panel. Sam is clearly an outstanding umpire and a fine ambassador for GCCUSA.

I would like to acknowledge our sponsors; Nerang RSL; Gambling Community Fund; Kookaburra and Dr. Dean Guy, who have enabled us to fund numerous programs and opportunities for our members.

Last, but certainly not least, I thank those members for the cooperation they have shown in ensuring their availability for matches, and attendance at meetings. Particular mention needs to be made of the Under 14 Southern Challenge held mid-week between 11 – 15 December, 2023, where GCCUSA fielded eight (8) umpires each day during a successful carnival conducted by CGC Juniors.

Additionally we have assisted QCUSA by supporting them on the Gold Coast, Brisbane, and also with GPS appointments at The Southport School home games.

I hope you enjoy your evening,
Bob Myatt

GCCUSA President

Secretaries' Message

Season 2023/24 has been a huge season for the GCCUSA and our members and come Sunday evening another Summer season will be over. From the first match on 15th April 2023, our members have travelled to all parts of the Gold Coast, Logan, Brisbane and Beaudesert across CGC, Veterans, Winter Cup, APS, GPS, Under 14s State Challenge and Inclusion Games.

The Selectors - Leigh Buckingham, Justin Cooke and myself have made 950 appointments across this season – 742 during the Summer and 208 during the Winter. My records indicate this is the second largest season in terms of appointments since 2010. I would like to personally thank Leigh and Justin for their support and guidance throughout the season from covering last minute withdrawals to the selections discussions that seemingly are never ending. I think we have spoken pretty much every day since September and without their support, the 950 appointments would not have happened.

Personal highlights from this season include the two First Grade debuts – Tony Kriel (number 86) and James Guy (87), 100th Junior Appointment for Ken Lawler, 100th CGC Appointment for Michael Guy, Rod Cameron, Rod Rice, Tony Richards and Greg Douglas and 50th Masters Appointment for Marty Orr. In early February, the Selectors had the unique experience of appointing one of our members to their 1000th match. I congratulate Stephen Fildes for this amazing achievement. In addition we welcomed both Greg Walton and David Davies to the Association and welcomed back Gary Stimpson after his absence.

As has been the case for the last couple of seasons, our members have officiated in many competitions outside of CGC matches. I would like to acknowledge those members who officiated non-CGC finals: Neville Taylor (APS), Michael Guy (Winter Cup Under 12s), Rod Rice & John Irvine (Winter Cup Seniors), Stephen Fildes & Peter Larter (Under 14s State Challenge), Stephen Fildes (Over 55s Masters National Championships in Christchurch), Robbie Hayter (National Inclusion Games – Intellectual Disability) and Mal Pearson (National Inclusion Games – Vision Impaired).

Finally, I would like to thank all members of the GCCUSA, without you we would not have been able to cover as many matches and support the game of cricket on the Gold Coast and beyond. Particular thanks must go to all those members who have been willing to change their appointment at late notice or travel to wherever to cover matches that pop up late in the week.

Tonight is a great opportunity to celebrate Season 2023/24 and acknowledge everyone's efforts in making it so successful. Good luck to those members appointed to Grand Finals this weekend, it is a great achievement to be selected to umpire a Grand Final whether it is First Grade or Under 12s. Enjoy the experience of these matches, they do not come around often. For those who are not umpiring this weekend, we could not have got to this part of the season without you; your contribution is not forgotten.

For those who are umpiring in Winter, I'll be sending out appointments shortly and for those who are having a break, I look forward to seeing you all in September when we will do it all again.

I hope you have a wonderful evening,

Michael Guy

Guest Speaker – Adam Hollioake

Adam Hollioake is a former England One Day captain who played four Tests and 35 ODIs for England between 1996 and 1999 as a batting allrounder. He played at Surrey before a comeback from retirement in 2007 with Essex.

Adam was born in Melbourne but learnt to play the game with his brother Ben at the Hong Kong Cricket Club Junior Gappers. Hollioake was offered a contract by Surrey in 1989 and made his first-class debut in August 1993. In 1995, he scored 1099 runs and took 21 wickets with one observer describing him as an all-rounder with “aggressive batting and inventive medium-pace all sorts”. He shared the captaincy of Surrey with Alec Stewart in 1996 when it was a custom at The Oval not to appoint an official vice-captain. Hollioake's approach was refreshingly positive and results improved almost instantly: Surrey won three first-class games and hauled themselves to 12th in the Championship having finished 18th in the Championship the year prior.

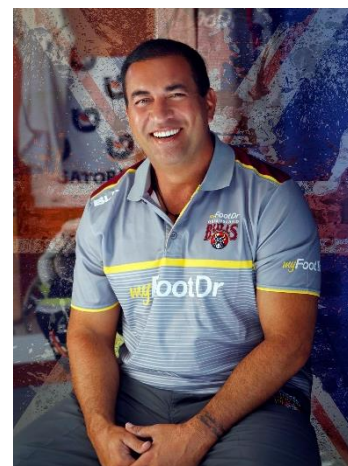

In 1996 was at another level with the bat for Adam with 1522 runs scored at 66 including five hundreds. He led the team to four Championship victories as Surrey climbed to third, and they confounded Wisden and other observers by winning the Sunday League. In 1997, Hollioake was appointed captain and Surrey won the Benson and Hedges Cup. In 1999, finally, they won the Championship. Surrey retained the title in 2000 and 2002 won the B&H again in 2001. Surrey had become the most successful team in the country and Hollioake one of the most successful captains in County history.

Hollioake received English ODI cap 143 on 31 August 1996 in a bilateral series against Pakistan at Birmingham. Batting at 7 he was run out for 15 off 27 and took 4/23 (6.5). After his international debut, he captained the England A team during the 1996/97 tour of Australia and was Man of the Series in a home ODI series against Australia in May 1997 with returns of 66* (84) and 2/22 (5) in the match at Leeds, 53* (41) and 1/25 (4) at The Oval and 4* (9) and 1/35 (6.2) at Lords. When Mike Atherton opted out of a four-team tournament in Sharjah at the end of 1997, Hollioake was the adventurous, if logical, choice to captain the side. A revamped team strong on allrounders and enthusiasm surprised India, Pakistan and West Indies (twice) and walked off with England's first tournament success for ten years.

Off the back of his ODI successes, Hollioake became England's 587th Test Cricketer during the 1997 Ashes series. Hollioake was only afforded four Test Matches when he was dropped mid-tour in the West Indies.

Away from cricket, Adam has competed as a professional boxer and had one fight as a mixed martial artist. His boxing record is 2-1-1 and MMA 0-1-0. In 2007, Adam formed Quiet Storm Productions which owned and produced 3 seasons of the television show Australia's Greatest Athlete.

Adam has been coaching with stints coaching Hong Kong, Afghanistan, England A and Queensland. More recently, he was called into a Covid-depleted English coaching set up during the 2021/22 Ashes series and has been the batting coach of Pakistan during their tours of Australia and New Zealand during the Summer of 2023/24.
